Information about the Society

The Johnston Historical Society is an important part of the culture of the City of Johnston and the surrounding area. The Society brings people together who are interested in researching and preserving Johnston's history. The Museum, which is located in a beautiful century old home just west of the Johnston Library, contains a wide variety of artifacts and historical documents.

Financial Support

The Johnston Historical Society is supported through membership dues, donations, and grants. Businesses having an interest in the Johnston Community are being asked to bolster this support through a Business Membership.

Please Join Us

We invite your business to join us in furthering the work of the Society in the museum and in the Johnston community. Business membership dues are $30.00 a year. Participating businesses will be recognized by a display of their company logo in the museum.

Businesses will also receive a copy of the bi-monthly newsletter and employees will be welcome at all social and educational events.

Contact Information

For additional information about the Historical Society, please contact Board President Dick Hyde by Phone
